INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
New York Philatelic Exhibition, Inc
22 East 35th Street
New York, New York 10016

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The New York Philatelic Exhibition, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2012, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Exhibition's management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The New York Philatelic Exhibition, Inc. as of December 31, 2012, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NEW YORK PHILATELIC EXHIBITION, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012

NOTE 1: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

- A. Reporting Entity: New York Philatelic Exhibition, Inc. is a newly formed not-for-profit corporation that is funded primarily by grants and charitable donations. It is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

New York Philatelic Exhibition, Inc. will plan and host an international philatelic exhibition in New York City, New York in the year 2016. The New York 2016 exhibition is planned to be an 8-day event and is expected to draw over 200,000 people. The exhibition will fulfill an educational role by bringing to the United States collectors and students from around the world as well as through the display of world renowned collections. Programs will be developed to bring the art and history of philately to new audiences with a special emphasis on school age children, special tours, visiting experts and an interactive website.

- B. Basis of Accounting: The financial statements of New York Philatelic Exhibition, Inc. have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.
- C. Basis of Presentation: Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under SFAS No. 117, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.
- D. Donated Services: No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for donated services. The Organization generally pays for services requiring specific expertise. However, many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks that assist the Organization.
- E. Expense Allocation: Directly identifiable expenses are charged to programs and supporting services. Expenses related to more than one function are charged to programs and supporting services on an estimated basis of time, space and expense considerations. Management and general expenses include those expenses that are not directly identifiable with any other specific function but provide for the overall support and direction of the Organization.

- F. Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenditures during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
- G. Restricted and Unrestricted Revenue: Revenues that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions expire (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished) in the reporting period in which the revenue is recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the Statement of Activities as net assets released from restrictions.
- H. Cash and Cash Equivalents: For purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Organization considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.
- I. Concentration of Contributions and Grants: During 2012 the Organization received approximately 62% of its public support from four donors.

NOTE 2: Concentration of Credit Risk

The Organization maintains all of its cash balances at one bank and a brokerage house. At year end, the Organization's carrying amount of deposits was $256,807 and the bank balance was $233,438. Of the bank balance, $123,699 was covered by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation. The remaining balance of $109,739 at the brokerage house was neither insured nor guaranteed by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation or any other government agency.

NOTE 3: Pledges Receivable

As of December 31, 2012 the organization had unconditional promises to give in the amount of $175,025. This entire amount is expected to be collected within five years.
