

Daniel J. Ryterband
New York, NY

Why I Support World Stamp Show-NY 2016...

Having attended the 2006 show in Washington DC, and seeing how incredibly well organized it was, it took all of a few seconds to accept the opportunity when invited to sponsor the 2016 show in my home town.

A global stamp show is a tremendous opportunity to meet new people, view exhibits and rare philatelic items, acquire new items for our collections, and most importantly, introduce philately to a new generation of future collectors.

It requires numerous volunteers and contributors at all levels, and it is important for the hobby's leaders to take an active role in ensuring success. I consider it an honor and privilege to have been asked to join the Leadership Circle.

Biography

Daniel Ryterband has numerous collecting interests including US Classics on and off cover, Confederate States postal history, Civil War postal history and prisoner of war covers, free franks, carriers and local posts, and New York State postal history. Dan is a member of many societies and philatelic organizations including the US Classics Society, the United States Stamp Society, the Confederate Stamp Alliance, the Carriers & Locals Society and the NY Collectors' Club. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Philatelic Foundation and currently serves as the Treasurer.

Dan lives with his wife and three children in suburban New York City and is president of Frederic W. Cook & Co., which provides consulting services to corporate boards in the areas of executive compensation and human resources strategy.