

Tami Jackson
Bourse Chair

Tami and husband Eric are proprietors of Eric Jackson Revenue Stamps, where she has worked since 1999 as business and inventory processing manager. She has been the advertising director for the American Stamp Dealer & Collector magazine since its inception at the Washington 2006 International Stamp Exhibition.

Before moving to Pennsylvania, Tami worked for Amos Press from 1986 to 1999 working for 11 years in the accounting department and later joining the Linn's Stamp News team to work in advertising sales.

She earned an Associate's Degree in Business, minoring in Accounting, while working full time and raising 3 children.