

Bruce Marsden
Commissioner General Assistant

Bruce's collecting interest centers on the stamps and postal history of Switzerland and a thematic interest in tourism. He serves the hobby as Treasurer of the American Philatelic Research Library and the American Helvetia Philatelic Society, Vice President of the Collectors Club, and on the board of NOJEX.

Bruce has a professional background in accounting and fiscal management in the financial services industry as a CPA and CFA charter holder. He is employed by Riverside Research, a non-profit scientific research and engineering support organization headquartered in lower Manhattan and additionally serves as a consultant in the banking industry.