World Stamp Show-NY 2016 Web Site Redesign

Planning continues for America's next international philatelic exhibition, World Stamp Show-NY 2016, taking place in New York City May 28-June 4 of that year.

Up until now much of the activity has been behind the scenes, as the show's organizing committee has been busy finalizing venue arrangements with the Jacob Javits Convention Center, discussing dealer and booth layouts with decorator firms, and contracting with a firm that will negotiate for thousands of discounted hotel rooms for show-goers throughout the eight day extravaganza. Accommodation details will be available to the public starting July 1, 2015.

At the current time plans include a major face-lift to the show's most public "face"—its web site at www.NY2016.org. The overall design has been in place since 2005; that was nearly seven years ago and it's time for a change.

A preliminary RFP is now available for experienced amateur and professional web site developers with a philatelic background interested in preparing initial home page designs to be considered by the WSS-NY 2016 organizing committee. The developer with the best design selected by the committee will be offered the opportunity to assume the paid webmaster position running through the 2016 show.

The RFP and further details can be found online at <http://www.ny2016.org>. Questions may be emailed to Tom Fortunato at stampmf@frontiernet.net. The target date to receive entries is by May 1, 2012. Also go to the web site to sign up to receive show updates by email and "Like Us" on Facebook.
