New Executive Director Named for World Stamp Show-NY 2016

Patricia Moeser has been named Executive Director of World Stamp Show-NY 2016 effective February 1, 2013. She succeeds Steven J. Rod who submitted his resignation due to personal and family needs.

Pat brings a wealth of experience to the position. A collector for more than 45 years and an exhibitor since 2008, she is currently affiliated with “The Excelsior Collection” based in Scotch Plains, NJ. From 1998-2009 she was a part-time, then full-time stamp dealer under the banner “Steed Philatelic.” She additionally was the President and owner of “The Exhibit Machine,” a full service exhibit construction, scenery and services firm from 1978-2002, specializing in trade show management.

“Pat has a lifetime of philatelic and show management experience that makes her a perfect fit to provide leadership for us over the next three years,” noted Wade E. Saadi, President of WSS-NY 2016.

She commented, “I am very much looking forward to beginning this new position, and helping to lead the show to being a huge success on all levels. I want to thank Steven for the many hours he has spent with me to effect a smooth transition.”

Rod has been a very active member of the WSS-NY 2016 Organizing Committee since its beginning in 2005. “I was saddened by Steven’s resignation,” Saadi said, “but I am delighted he is staying on as a key member of the Committee.”

World Stamp Show-NY 2016 continues the tradition that began in 1913 of hosting a once-a-decade U.S. international philatelic exhibition. The celebration features more than 200 dealers and over 60 post offices from nations around the globe, along with 4,000 competitive frames of the world’s greatest stamp and postal history collections. It runs for eight days, opening on May 28, 2016 at the Jacob Javits Convention Center in New York City. Please visit www.ny2016.org or email info@ny2016.org for further information.
