World Stamp Show-NY Newsletter 1 Released

World Stamp Show-NY 2016 is pleased to announce that its first newsletter has just been made available on its web site for show visitors and others interested in the international exhibition taking place May 28-June 4, 2016 at the Jacob Javits Convention Center in New York City.

The five page document issued 33 months before the show opens has four articles, including a welcome message from exhibition President Wade Saadi, details of Liberty Club membership support, booth participation at Stampshow and a "Meet the Team" section introducing the public to many of the volunteer leaders working on various aspects of the show.

WSS-NY 2016 Executive Director Pat Moeser reports, "This is the first of many newsletters expected to be released quarterly right up to the time we open the doors to this country's once-a-decade extravaganza. These all-digital updates will eventually cover every aspect of the show and provide a lasting legacy of how it all came about."

The timing of Newsletter 1 coincides with the annual APS Stampshow taking place August 8-11 at the Wisconsin Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The public is invited to an hour long gathering taking place that Saturday at noon in room 202-D for a presentation and open forum about the exhibition given by the show leadership. Join various team members at the NY2016 booth on the show floor throughout the four day event.

Download Newsletter 1 and see additional exhibition details on the WSS-NY 2016 web site at <http://www.ny2016.org>.
