Wade Saadi, President, World Stamp Show New York 2016

Hi. My name is Wade Saadi, and I am president of the New York Philatelic Exhibition Inc., the corporate name of World Stamp Show New York 2016. Welcome to our web site!

A dedicated group of philatelists from the greater New York City area has been working since 2005 to make America's next international show a reality right here in the Big Apple.

Plan to attend World Stamp Show taking place in May 2016 at the Javits Convention Center. Whether you are new to our hobby or a seasoned veteran, living nearby or coming from afar, this once-a-decade show is not to be missed.

Our web site will keep you informed of what awaits all visitors to World Stamp Show 2016.

Feel free to email, write or leave feedback with your questions, comments and suggestions anytime. We encourage and appreciate your input. And again, welcome!
